THE PASTOR'S PEN

Often there is a debate among the sports world over who is the greatest athlete. As we know the Olympics just ended with a couple of those athletes being branded with that label. Athletes from the past are also mentioned in that conversation as well. Outside of sports there are also lists that people come up with about who the greatest politician or president is, greatest singer or actor, and there is even a list of the greatest humans.

The disciples had been disputing among themselves over who in their group was the greatest (Mark 9:33-34). I'm sure Peter was telling everyone he was the greatest because he was the spokesperson of the group. James and John, who Jesus branded as the sons of thunder due to their temperament (Mark 3:17), were seeking to sit on the right and left side of Jesus in heaven (Mark 10:37). The others were also chiming in as well and giving their reasons for why they were the greatest.

Jesus knew they were arguing back and forth about who the greatest was, and in Mark 9:35 He sat down and said this to them: "If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all." Jesus' teaching is the exact opposite of what our society teaches. Society teaches that if we want to be first, then we must "step on" every person that gets in our way. In other words, we are to make whoever gets in our way look bad to make ourselves look good.

Jesus tells us to be first, we are to put others before ourselves. Jesus tells us the way to put others before ourselves is to serve them. We are to seek to serve every person we come in contact with, which includes those that hate us. Jesus of course is the Perfect Example of service and love to others. In John 13:1-20, Jesus wrapped a towel around his waist, went to His knees, and washed the feet of all the disciples including Judas who betrayed Him. When He had finished, He said to them, "Ye call Me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet (John 13:13-14)." May we all serve the Lord by serving others!

Pastor John
